

WE ARE ONE

I Honor the Divine in You

Everything is exquisitely beautiful! Listen! Look and feel the rhythm of the Universe! It is only one song, one life, one love, one heart, one God. This manifestation of goodness is one endless melody playing joyfully as the universal celebration of life; one song flowing with divine grace through the eternal breath of Spirit. All exists in harmony with the one infinite song of love. Life is beautiful. Life is God. God is Life. God is one.

Indeed, I am an expression of this beauty. I am made in the image and likeness of the Living Spirit. I Am! I Am! The whole Universe dances with joy every moment of my existence; nothing can distract me from this awareness of Oneness; I am one in Spirit. I am one with life. I am a manifestation of the unconditional love of God. I know I am, and when I say I am, I am saying you are!

I accept the sacred gift of love and tenderness of God. I declare with deep conviction my oneness with all expression of Life. I proclaim that you and I are interconnected through the power of love. I exist in your consciousness, you exist in my consciousness; we dwell within the great consciousness of God; Together, we are one melody singing the song of life which transcends race, religion, nationality, creed or gender. I realize that in this Oneness there is a spiritual connection uniting us always in peace, love and grace.

I give thanks for this moment and for the realization of this truth. I know that as I express my gratitude for the presence of God revealing itself as the Oneness in this world, my heart is filled with kindness and compassion. Thank you, Divine Spirit.

I now release my word. I let go. I know it is done as I believe. And so it is! Amen!
