What type of courses do you offer?

The 2 to 6-year ministerial program educates future spiritual leaders in the areas of leadership, philosophy, science and spirituality, psychology, and religion. Our courses are power packed and provide you with a well-rounded education. Courses include and are not limited to:

- Contemporary applications of Science of Mind
- Pastoral guidance and care
- Church management and ethics
- Delivering powerful sermons

Who are your teachers?

The distance faculty are all renowned experts in their fields. Regional courses are taught by experienced ministers and teachers who prepare you for the next steps on your ministerial journey.

Where are the courses held?

All distance courses are delivered online through recorded lectures, Zoom meetings with professors and classmates, and chat rooms where ideas are explored. All regional courses are offered from one of our campuses or teaching centers (see left) and may be in-person or via Zoom, depending on course material and instructor.

When are courses offered?

Courses are offered year round on a quarterly basis. You may enter the program prior to any term. Terms run from January to March, April to June, July to September, and October to December.

For more information, contact the registrar, dean, or primary teacher of the campus or teaching center nearest you.

What are the requirements to enter the program? What is the cost?

To get accepted into the ministerial program, you must:

- be a licensed Centers for Spiritual Living practitioner
- apply to one of the four distance programs AND a Regional Program (two separate applications required)
