CENTERS FOR SPIRITUAL LIVING™ AND SCIENCE OF MIND MAGAZINE
SPONSOR ILLUMINATE FILM FESTIVAL

Golden, CO (March 29, 2016) – Centers for Spiritual Living™ and Science of Mind Magazine have signed on as Principal Presenting Sponsors for the 3rd Annual Illuminate Film Festival, the 22-film mind-body-spirit festival being held June 1-5 in Sedona, AZ.

Science of Mind Magazine's May issue will also feature a cover story on Illuminate and "The Connected Universe," one of the conscious films making its festival world premiere.

"We are excited to have this chance to partner with the Illuminate Film Festival on this important event that will inspire and uplift our global consciousness," said David Goldberg, publisher of Science of Mind magazine and Science of Mind Publishing. "This festival will present empowering films and messages by filmmakers and story tellers from around the globe."

The 3rd annual Illuminate Film Festival, which was featured on the Huffington Post's prestigious Top 24 Film Festivals to Revitalize Your Soul in 2016, will encompass at least seven world premieres, two sneak peeks and newly added focuses on family film, episodic web content, and a line-up of films under the theme, Social Issues, Conscious Solutions.

"In just three short years, we're proud to have become an industry leader in the conscious cinema movement," said Illuminate Film Festival Executive Director Danette Wolpert. "After all, the power of story is arguably the single-most affecting tool we have at our fingertips to shape the human experience. Filmmakers, now on the frontier of a global conscious shift, are speaking with their cameras, and Illuminate provides these brilliant visionary filmmakers of our time a vehicle to enlighten our world."

Based in Golden, CO, Centers for Spiritual Living™ is a global community comprised of 400 spiritual communities, teaching chapters, study groups and other ministries in 30 countries, teaching a New Thought philosophy through the study and practice of Science of Mind®, also known as Religious Science®.
