

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:
Dr. David S. Goldberg, Publisher
720-270-1641

CENTERS FOR SPIRITUAL LIVING CONFERS SPIRITUAL HERO AWARD ON SHARIFF ABDULLAH

GOLDEN, CO (November 29, 2016) The Centers for Spiritual Living (CSL) has honored Shariff Abdullah, J.D., with its prestigious Spiritual Hero award. The presentation of the award will be announced in the December issue of Guide for Spiritual Living: Science of Mind magazine.

Abdullah is a consultant and advocate for societal transformation. His mission is to bring dysfunctional systems and structures into alignment with our common human and spiritual values to create a world that works for all living things. His work as director of Conway Institute allows him to travel the world and work to create harmony in conditions of actual or potential conflict and discord.

“Some of the reasons Shariff was selected for this honor include his lifelong commitment to peace and creating a world that works for all, and the results from his work with people from all walks of life around the world,” said Science of Mind Publisher Dr. David S. Goldberg.

CSL has only one criteria for its Spiritual Hero: that the person does not identify as a Religious Scientist. “This is our way of acknowledging that we are all One,” Goldberg says, “and that there are many people from many faith traditions doing good work in the world.”

“When I first heard that I was receiving this recognition from Science of Mind magazine,” Abdullah said, “My thoughts went to the people before me who have worked to transform our world — the women and men who have struggled and sacrificed to bring our highest spiritual and human values into the arena of our daily living.

“The path to freedom does not lie in denying it to others. The path to peace does not lie in disrupting it for others. The path to true abundance does not involve stealing it from others. The path to an authentic society lies in seeing . . . ONE,” Abdullah added.

Past recipients of the CSL Spiritual Hero award include: Wayne Dyer, Oprah Winfrey, Bishop Yvette Flunder, Maya Angelou and Arun Gandhi (Mahatma Gandhi's grandson), among many others.

Based in Golden, CO, Centers for Spiritual Living™ is a global community comprised of 400 spiritual communities, teaching chapters, study groups and other ministries in 30 countries, teaching a New Thought philosophy through the study and practice of Science of Mind®, also known as Religious Science®. The organization honors all spiritual paths and lifestyles. For more information, visit: www.CSL.org.

CSL also publishes Guide for Spiritual Living: Science of Mind magazine, a monthly publication that empowers readers with tools to create a better, happier and more satisfying life. Every issue features thought-provoking articles with today's most influential New Thought leaders such as His Holiness the Dalai Lama, Deepak Chopra, Jean Houston, Mitch Horowitz, don Miguel Ruiz and Christiane Northrup. Plus there are daily guides, smart ideas and useful tips to help awaken a life you love. Visit: www.ScienceOfMind.com.

###