Contemporary inspirational artist, Denise Rosier (pronounced Rosie- AY), is an award-winning singer/songwriter, producer, and recording artist. She is best known for writing music for New Thought spiritual communities. Her original songs have been released on 7 solo studio albums, numerous compilation albums, and television. In addition to winning 9 Positive Music Awards, Denise is the first artist to successfully introduce New Thought music to the larger inspirational music audience by winning two nominations for Best Contemporary Christian/Gospel album at the Independent Music Awards in 2016 and 2019.

Denise was honored to receive the 2023 Grace Note Award from Unity Worldwide Ministries for lifetime achievement in positive and inspirational music. She also served a term as the national music director for the Centers For Spiritual Living from 2022-2023. Her newest album "Higher" was released in January 2024.

Denise's concerts, music & message programs, and enriching workshops are all part of her passion to help people come to an understanding of one another through music, conversation, and their oneness in the divine.
