

Gary Lynn Floyd is a modern-day musical shaman, radiating warmth, wisdom, and creativity. With a presence that is both grounding and uplifting, Gary embodies the spirit of connection, joy, and spiritual exploration.

With 14 albums under his belt, he's garnered numerous accolades, including a Hollywood Music in Media Award for his song "Unbound", three Empower Music Posi Awards, and three Out Music Award nominations, including Album of the Year for his critically acclaimed album, "The Gospel of Zen". Critics and fans alike respond to Gary with open arms.

With his keyboard by his side, he's ready to transform any space into a sanctuary of sound, creating connections through every note and lyric. A natural performer, his music emanates an aura of healing and unity, drawing listeners into a shared, transformative experience.

Gary is currently the Artist-In-Residence at the Center for Spiritual Living in Reno, NV, fostering creativity and spiritual growth. His music and presence raise the collective vibration, inspiring positive change.