

Rev. Michele K. Synegal

Reverend Michele is bi-vocational, serving as Senior Minister at the Temple of Light in Kingston, Jamaica and as the President of Management Dynamics, Inc, a consulting firm that advocates for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. She is a master facilitator having designed and facilitated or 20,000 hours of leadership development training across many industries.

She was ordained in 2012, served as Senior Minister of the Spiritual Empowerment Center in Baltimore, Maryland, for more than 10 years, and is in her third term serving on the Ministers' Council. She was recently elected as co-chair. She chaired what is now the Diversity Inclusion Committee for three years introducing DEI webinars to CSL

Michele is a visionary and shared her vision with the organization to create World Day of Service which was introduced in 2012 at our convention in Vancouver, BC.

Writing and publishing are her most recent passions. Her second book, Widow's Speak: A Guide to Healing, Living and Thriving After the Loss of a Loved One was published in, 2023. Inspiration in Small Doses was published in 2016 and is used in Kenya, CSL along with other works by New Thought authors of the African diaspora.

She had the vision for and has launched a successful program for young adults: Step into Your Future where participants are being exposed to the principles of SOM.

She holds a bachelor's degree in human relations and organizational behavior from the University of San Francisco and a master's degree in Consciousness Studies from the Holmes Institute for Consciousness Studies.