

Dr. Pat Campbell has served as the Spiritual Director for the Calgary Centre for Spiritual Living since 2013. Prior to that, she served as Spiritual Director of the Center for Spiritual Living Temecula Valley for 15 years. In addition, Dr. Pat has served on the CSL Events team for at least 20 conferences, conventions, and retreats within the organization. Doing so provides all the things she loves -- the Science of Mind, inspiring messages, good music, community, and a party atmosphere!

She is known for her humor, story-telling, and down-to-earth style in speaking and writing. She is the author of a book, "Giving God a Good Time." Dr. Pat lives in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, with her two cats, Tom and Jerry.
