

Deborah Gayle, RScP

BIOGRAPHY

Deborah Gayle has been involved with Religious Science and New Thought philosophy for over 45 years. She has attended Guidance Church, is a founding member of Agape and returned to Guidance along with her husband, Rev. Dr. Reginald Gayle when he became the senior minister.

She is currently a member of Founders CSL in Los Angeles. Where she is secretary of the Board of Trustees and is the chairperson of the Practitioner Core. At Founders she teaches Practitioner classes, has spoken many times at Sunday services, is a workshop leader and works with clients to guide them toward inspired living

Deborah has been a member of the Practitioner Council for five years. During that time she has served as co-chair and secretary twice while on the council. She feels that being a practitioner is a sacred calling that upholds and honors the legacy of every practitioner who has ever opened their heart to this path.
